Application for anticipatory bail. The petitioner faces allegations under Section 498A I.P.C. Crime has been registered on the basis of a private complaint filed by the defacto complainant/wife of the petitioner before the learned Magistrate, which was referred by the learned Magistrate to the police under Section 156(3) Cr.P.C. Investigation is in progress. The petitioner apprehends imminent arrest. The co-accused have already been granted bail by the learned Sessions Judge.

2. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is absolutely innocent. The marriage took place on 13.5.2005. The spouses are not blessed with any children. There is strain in the marital tie and on account of such strain, fanciful, false and exaggerated allegations are being made against the petitioner. The petitioner may be saved of the undeserved trauma of arrest and incarceration in prison, submits the learned counsel.

3. The learned Prosecutor does not oppose the application. I find the stand taken by the learned Prosecutor to be absolutely reasonable. I am persuaded to agree that directions under Section 438 Cr.P.C. can be issued in favour of the petitioner. I take note of the reality that the arrest and incarceration of the petitioner is likely to mar all possibilities of reconciliation of marital relationship. Subject to appropriate conditions, anticipatory bail can be granted to the petitioner, I am satisfied.

4. In the result:

(1) This application is allowed.

(2) The following directions are issued under Section 438 Cr.P.C.

(a) The petitioner shall surrender before the learned Magistrate on 8.10.2007 at 11 a.m. The learned Magistrate shall release the petitioner on regular bail on condition that he executes a bond for Rs.25,000/- (Rupees twenty five thousand only) with two solvent sureties each for the like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate.

(b) The petitioner shall make himself available for interrogation before the Investigating Officer between 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. on 9.10.07, and 10.10.2007 and thereafter on all Mondays and Fridays between 10 a.m. and 12 noon for a period of two months and subsequently as and when directed by the Investigating Officer in writing to do so.

(c) If the petitioner does not appear before the learned Magistrate as directed in clause (1) above, these directions shall lapse on 8.10.07 and the police shall be at liberty thereafter to arrest the petitioner and deal with him in accordance with law.

(d) If the petitioner were arrested prior to his surrender on 8.10.2007 as directed in clause (1) above, he shall be released on bail on his executing a bond for Rs.25,000/- without any surety undertaking to appear before the learned Magistrate on 8.10.2007.
